

JANA ANDERS

SENIOR CONSULTANT

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Jana is an executive coach and leadership development consultant who specializes in course design and facilitation. Her clients say that her keen insights, her dedication to her clients and her strong interpersonal skills create exemplary results.

As an executive coach Jana has helped leaders successfully transition into new roles, improve their interpersonal savvy, build strong leadership teams and create highly effective relationships with those they work with.

As a leadership development consultant, Jana has designed, facilitated and consulted around programs on multiple topics including career development, employee engagement, change management, diversity and inclusion, unconscious bias, coaching and conflict management. Training Magazine has recognized Jana for her work in the learning field naming her one of their Top 40 Trainers under 40.

Jana has coached and trained leaders across the U.S. and in Europe and the Middle East. She has worked in multiple industries including Technology, Financial Services, Aerospace, Solar, Industrial Development, Service, Nonprofit and Biotechnology.

Jana is a talented designer and engaging facilitator who brings her audience along for a thought provoking learning journey. Her coaching and facilitation includes clear application so participants can make positive change.

EDUCATION/CREDENTIALS

Jana received her Master's of Science in Management from Texas A&M University. She is certified and highly experienced in several assessments – Myers Briggs, Strength Deployment Inventory and DiSC. She is an Academy of Coaching and NLP graduate and an International Coach Federation (ICF) certified coach.

SPECIALTY AREAS

- Executive Coaching
- Leadership Development
- Career Development
- Talent Retention and Engagement

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Jana is a member of the Bay Area Executive Development Network and the International Coaching Federation. She is an active participant and speaker at HR Conferences.

800.577.6916

www.talent-dimensions.com