

MARK J. METOYER SR.

SENIOR CONSULTANT

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

A consultant, trainer and facilitator, Mark Metoyer conducts training courses and workshops for corporations, government agencies, associations and universities. Mark has led numerous complex development programs within the Federal arena. These include emerging leaders, mid-level managers and senior executive leadership development curricula for the USDA, GSA, the Department of the Interior and Health and Human Services that incorporated Project Action Teams, various assessment tools, classroom and web-based instruction, cross cultural communication skill building, conflict management techniques, teambuilding and other OPM Executive Core Qualification (ECQ) competencies. He has the proven ability to stay “in touch” with all levels of an organization and routinely receives outstanding evaluation scores from workshop participants.

Mark brings over 23 years of field experience to each engagement and leverages his expertise in adult training, motivating highly effective teams, human resources training, organizational assessments, telework management, confidential investigations, training management and strategic planning. His topical specialties include leadership, diversity management, communications, organizational development, interpersonal relations and negotiation.

Mark is a retired U.S. Coast Guard officer whose service specialty was training and development. His distinguished career included assignments throughout the United States and abroad. He was selected as a coordinator and facilitator for the Presidential initiative on race relations, One America.

EDUCATION/CREDENTIALS

He received academic degrees from Southern Illinois University and Webster University.

Mark served on the Board of Directors for Habitat for Humanity of Brevard County FL. In addition, he was a practicing supervisor, manager and executive for more than 20 years in government and private industry. Certifications include Cultural Intelligence facilitator, conflict resolution mediator, Equal Employment Opportunity counselor, Total Quality Management (TQM) facilitator and situational leadership (SITLEAD II) facilitator. Mark is based in Melbourne, Florida.

800.577.6916

www.talent-dimensions.com