

JASMINE LIEW CHIA WEI

SENIOR CONSULTANT

TALENT DIMENSIONS

Jasmine has designed, trained, facilitated and coached more than 10,000 global participants including C-Suite and Department Heads, Middle Management and Executives from various organisations. Jasmine's methodological approach is to contextualise and customise the content into real life and practical applications for the organisations and the participants. She strives "To Equip, Enable and Empower Leaders, Teams and Employees to move towards greater success from "Knowing (Understand), Doing (Apply) to Being (Living it)."

Her Core Expertise are Cultivating Psychological Safety for High Performing Team, Enhance Employee Engagement Through 5 Languages of Appreciation, Leading Team towards Changes, Career Planning and Career Development. Jasmine had been interviewed by Singapore Radio 938 and published articles in The Straits Times, The New Paper and The Business Times on her core expertise.

Being a Human Resource Leader for the past 20 years, her experience included the Singapore Civil Service, MNCs and the Private Sector. Jasmine has attained the Senior Professional status from Institute for Human Resource Professionals, Singapore for being an experienced and competent HR leader in leading a HR function and team.

Jasmine received The Training Leader of the Year Award 2017 in recognition for her effective Learning and Organisation Development Interventions for her corporate clients. She was also a recipient for the Ministry of Manpower Skill Future Study Award in 2019.

Jasmine is the first Global batch of Fearless Organisation Practitioner (Team Psychological Safety) by Prof Amy Edmondson, the Asia Premiere Partner-The Five Languages of Appreciation in the Workplace™ and a Global Career Development Facilitator (GCDF®), National Career Development Association (NCDA). She is pursuing a Doctor of Business Administration from The University of Canberra. She has attained her Masters in Education and HRD from The George Washington University and a Bachelor of Arts, Economics & Political Science from The National University of Singapore. Jasmine speaks English and conversational Mandarin.

800.577.6916

www.talent-dimensions.com